TASTING NOTES:

One of the most rustic grape varieties of the 'Vinho Verde' Region produces this citric wine with a fresh aroma that reveals lime and tropical fruit. Its freshness and mineral contents associated to a relatively low acidity make this wine one of the most refreshing and adaptive to the requisites of the gastronomy of the warm summer.

WINEMAKERS:

José Manuel Antunes, Fernando Moura, António Sousa

VINEYARDS:

Casa de Vilacetinho is located in Alpendurada overlooking the River Douro and covers an estate with 30 hectares of vineyards which develop in a continuous and ordered manner in soils of granitic nature, with a predominantly South sun exposure, making it one of the most prosperous locales of the region set to the production of 'Vinho Verde'.
